

I Was Fooled

Performed by: Anson Funderburgh & the Rockets

Now, once upon a time
Down on 47th Street
I met a real fine chick
Tried to knock her off her feet

Now at the time
I thought she was plain
And didn't know that I
Was a real sugar man

But she fooled me
Yeah she fooled me that time
I thought she was just a dumb girl
And could give her any line

Now that same chick
She tried to put me on the run
'Cause I gave her a little money
And we had a little fun

Now all along
I thought she didn't know
I had another chick
Stashed behind the closet door

But she fooled me
Yeah she fooled me that time
I thought she was just a dumb girl
And could give her any line

(Instrumental – 12 bars)

Now that same girl
She wanna put me down
I had holes in my pockets
And my feet was on the ground

She said look a hear daddy
I'm gonna change my order
I'm gonna trade you in
For a later model

But she fooled me
Yea she fooled me that time
I thought she was just a dumb girl
And could give her any line
